CHAPTER II. REGULAR MEMBER AND SPECIFIED BUSINESS MEMBER

SECTION 1. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

(Regular Membership Status)

Article 11 An entity who fulfills the requirements prescribed in Article 5, Item 1 shall become a Regular Member upon the receipt of approval prescribed in Article 22, Paragraph 1, or Article 26, Paragraph 1 that applies mutatis mutandis to Article 30.

2. In cases where a Regular Member withdraws from the Association upon the receipt of approval prescribed in Article 25, Paragraph 1, or where a Regular Member is expelled from the Association pursuant to the resolution prescribed in Article 28, Paragraph 1, the Regular Member shall lose its membership status.

3. In cases where a Regular Member’s corporate status discontinues through a merger, the Regular Member shall lose its membership status.

(Regular Member’s Rights)

Article 12 A Regular Member shall have the rights as a Regular Member prescribed in the Articles of Association Enforcement Rules (hereinafter referred to as “Regular Member’s Rights”).

2. In cases where a Regular Member loses its membership status pursuant to Paragraph 2 or 3 of the preceding Article, the Regular Member’s Rights shall lapse.

3. In cases where the Association determines that a Regular Member is no longer an entity who conducts Type I Financial Instruments Business prescribed in Article 5, Item 1, or that a Regular Member suspends its business operation and the Association approves to discharge the obligation of the Regular Member to pay its membership fee during the business suspension period, a part of the Regular Member’s Rights prescribed in the Articles of Association Enforcement Rules shall be limited.

4. Regular Member’s Rights shall not be transferred.

(Specified Business Membership Status)

Article 13 An entity who fulfills the requirements prescribed in Article 5, Item 2 shall become a Specified Business Member upon the receipt of approval prescribed in Article 22, Paragraph 1 or Article 26, Paragraph 1.

2. In cases where a Specified Business Member withdraws from the Association upon the receipt of approval prescribed in Article 25, Paragraph 1 that applies mutatis mutandis to Article 30, or where a Specified Business Member is expelled from the Association pursuant to the resolution prescribed in Article 28, Paragraph 1 that applies mutatis mutandis to Article 30, the Specified Business Member shall lose its membership status.

3. In cases where a Specified Business Member's corporate status discontinues through a merger, the Specified Business Member shall lose its membership status.

(Specified Business Member's Rights)

Article 14 A Specified Business Member shall have the rights as a Specified Business Member prescribed in the Articles of Association Enforcement Rules (hereinafter referred to as "Specified Business Member's Rights").

2. In cases where a Specified Business Member loses its membership status pursuant to Paragraph 2 or 3 of the preceding Article, the Specified Business Member's Rights shall lapse.

3. In cases where the Association determines that a Specified Business Member is no longer an entity who conducts Type I Financial Instruments Business prescribed in Article 5, Item 2, or that a Specified Business Member suspends its business operation and the Association approves to discharge the obligation of the Specified Business Member to pay its membership fee during the business suspension period, a part of the Specified Business Member's Rights prescribed in the Articles of Association Enforcement Rules shall be limited.

4. Specified Business Member's Rights shall not be transferred.

(Membership Fees and Additional Membership Fees)

Article 15 A Regular Member must pay membership fees to the Association as determined by the Association.

2. When the Association deems it necessary to cover special expenditure, a Regular Member must pay additional membership fees as determined by the Association.

3. The amount of membership fees and additional membership fees shall be determined by a resolution of the Board of Governors.

4. The resolution prescribed in the preceding Paragraph shall be made in accordance with the principle of ensuring fair burden-sharing among Regular Members.

Article 16 (DELETED)

(Regular Member Representative and Deputy)

Article 17 Under the Articles of Association Enforcement Rules, a Regular Member must appoint a person representing the Regular Member with respect to the businesses of the Association (hereinafter referred to as "Regular Member Representative") as well as his/her deputy, and notify the Association thereof.

2. If the Association deems a Regular Member Representative or his/her deputy incompetent, it may request for replacement by presenting reasons therefor.

(Matters for Notification and Reports)

Article 18 If a Regular Member falls under the cases prescribed in the Articles of Association Enforcement Rules or other rules, the Regular Member must notify or report the matter to the Association without delay in a prescribed form.

(Submission of Reports and Data)

Article 19 When deemed necessary, the Association may request that a Regular Member submits a report or data concerning the situation of observance by the Regular Member, or Financial Instruments Intermediary Service Providers for which the Regular Member is an Entrusting Financial Instruments Business Operator, etc., of laws and regulations, disciplinary actions taken by administrative government offices pursuant to laws and regulations, the Articles of Association and other rules, or the good faith principles of transactions, as well as concerning the Regular Member's business and property.

2. A Regular Member must comply with the Association's request to submit a report or data prescribed in the preceding Paragraph.

(Inspection)

Article 20 Under the "Inspection Rules", the Association may inspect the observance by a Regular Member, or Financial Instruments Intermediary Service Providers for which the Regular Member is an Entrusting Financial Instruments Business Operator, etc., of laws and regulations, disciplinary actions taken by administrative government offices pursuant to laws and regulations, the Articles of Association and other rules, or the good faith principles of transactions, and the Regular Member's business and property as well as its books, records and other objects.

2. A Regular Member must accept an inspection implemented by the Association pursuant to the preceding Paragraph.

(Restriction on Use of the Association's Name)

Article 21 Unless otherwise prescribed in the FIEA and relevant laws and regulations or in the Articles of Association Enforcement Rules, a Regular Member must not use the name of the Association or the names of conferences established under the Association (including those of which are designed; the same shall apply hereinafter) without obtaining an approval from the Association.

SECTION 2. ADMISSION AND WITHDRAWAL

(Approval of Admission)

Article 22 An entity who fulfills any of the requirements prescribed in each Item of the Article 5 hereof and seeks admission to the Association must submit to the Association an application for admission in the form provided by the Association and obtain an approval from the Association.

2. The application for admission prescribed in the preceding Paragraph must be accompanied by the documents required by the Articles of Association Enforcement Rules.

3. The approval of the admission prescribed in Paragraph 1 above shall be made by a resolution of the Board of Governors. Provided, however, the approval of the admission of a Specified Bridge Financial Institution, etc. (the specified bridge financial institutions prescribed in Article 126-34, Paragraph 3, Item 5 of the Deposit Insurance Act; the same shall apply hereinafter) shall be made by the Chairman, who must immediately report such effect to the Board of Governors.

4. The Association may give necessary instructions at the time of admission to an Association Member newly joining the Association for the purposes of developing internal rules and administration systems that enable it to comply with laws and regulations, the Articles of Association and other rules, and ensuring the effectiveness of the ethical code.

(Refusal of Admission)

Article 23 When an entity who has applied for admission prescribed in Paragraph 1 of the preceding Article (hereinafter referred to as "Admission Applicant") falls under either of the following Items, the Association may refuse its admission:

- (1) If an Admission Applicant has been ordered to suspend Sale and Purchase or Other Transactions of Securities, etc. or Derivative Transactions, etc. prescribed in the Article 33, Paragraph 3 of the FIEA or has been expelled from membership or has had trading qualifications revoked by an Authorized Association or a Financial Instruments Exchange prescribed in the Article 2, Paragraph 16 of thereof (hereinafter referred to as “Financial Instruments Exchange”) on a charge of a violation of laws and regulations, a disciplinary action taken by an administrative government office pursuant to laws and regulations, or the Articles of Authorized Association or Articles of Incorporation of a Financial Instruments Exchange or other rules, or on a charge of an act in violation of the good faith principles of transactions; or
- (2) If an Admission Applicant has made a false statement or has failed to make a statement on important matters in the application for admission or the documents accompanying the application prescribed in the preceding Article.

(Payment of Admission Fee upon Approval of Admission)

Article 24 An Admission Applicant who has obtained an approval for admission to the Association must pay admission fee by the date designated by the Association. Provided, however, if the Admission Applicant is a Specified Bridge Financial Institution, etc., it is not necessary to pay the admission fee.

2. The amount of admission fee shall be prescribed by the Articles of Association Enforcement Rules.
3. The admission fee prescribed in Paragraph 1 shall not be returned to the Association Members.

(Approval of Withdrawal)

Article 25 A Regular Member who intends to withdraw from the Association must submit to the Association an application for withdrawal in the form provided by the Association, and obtain an approval from the Association, provided, however, that the submission of such application shall not be necessary if the Association specifically admits it.

2. The approval of withdrawal prescribed in the preceding Paragraph shall be made by a resolution of the Board of Governors.

(Application for Change of Association Membership Type)

Article 26 A Regular Member who seeks to become a Specified Business Member must fulfill the requirements prescribed in Article 5, Item 2, and submit to the Association an application for membership change in the form provided by the Association and obtain an approval from the Association.

2. The application for membership change set forth in the preceding Paragraph must be accompanied by the documents prescribed in the Articles of Association Enforcement Rules.
3. The approval of membership change prescribed in Paragraph 1 above shall be made by a resolution of the Board of Governors.

(Special Measures in Connection with Specified Bridge Financial Institution, Etc.)

Article 27 If an Association Member is a Specified Bridge Financial Institution, etc., the Association may take measures against such Association Member by the resolution at the Board of Governors that are necessary for contributing to the stability of the financial market in Japan and other financial systems, regardless of the provisions of the Articles of Association or other rules.

2. Notwithstanding the provision of the preceding Paragraph, any measures that are immediately necessary for smooth business operation of a Specified Bridge Financial Institution, etc. can be decided by the Chairman. When the Chairman makes such a decision, he/she shall immediately report such effect to the Board of Governors.

SECTION 3. DISCIPLINARY ACTION AND ADMONITION

(Disciplinary Action, Etc. against Regular Members)

Article 28 When a Regular Member is deemed to fall under any of the Items below, the Association may take a disciplinary action against the Regular Member by a resolution of the Board of Governors:

- (1) It joins the Association by dishonest means;
- (2) It becomes insolvent and such insolvency is not readily-recoverable;
- (3) It violates laws and regulations, a disciplinary action taken by an administrative government office pursuant to laws and regulations, or the Articles of Association and other rules, a resolution at a General Assembly or by the Board of Governors or a disciplinary action thereunder;
- (4) It commits an act in violation of the good faith principles of transactions;
- (5) It fails to make the payment of money which should be paid to the Association as prescribed by the Association;
- (6) It fails to make the notification or report prescribed in Article 18 hereof, or it presents a false notification or report;
- (7) It fails to submit the reports or data prescribed in Article 19 hereof, or it submits false reports or data;
- (8) It refuses, disturbs or evades the inspection prescribed in Article 20 hereof;
- (9) It uses the Association name and the names of boards and committees established under the Association without an approval in violation of Article 21 hereof;
- (10) It violates the instructions prescribed in Article 22, Paragraph 4 hereof;
- (11) A Financial Instruments Intermediary Service Provider for which the Regular Member is an Entrusting Financial Instruments Business Operator, etc. commits an act that falls under Items 3 or 4 of this Paragraph; or
- (12) The fact that any major shareholder (which means a major shareholder prescribed in Article 29-4, Paragraph 2 of the FIEA), officer, or employee is an antisocial force may ruin the credibility of the Financial Instruments Business.

2. When the Association attempts to take a disciplinary action prescribed in the preceding Paragraph, it shall provide an opportunity for explanation.

3. The types of disciplinary actions prescribed in Paragraph 1 shall be reprimand, imposition of fine, suspension or limitation of Regular Member's Rights or expulsion.

4. The amount of fine prescribed in the preceding Paragraph shall be up to five hundred million yen (¥500,000,000); provided, however, that if there exists an amount of gain that is deemed to have a considerable degree of causal relationship with the act set forth in each Item of Paragraph 1 (including the amount of loss averted in case of loss aversion; hereinafter referred to as "Amount of Unfair Gain"), such Amount of Unfair Gain may be added to the fine.

5. The period of the suspension or limitation of Regular Member's Rights prescribed in Paragraph 3 above shall be six months or less.
6. At the time of taking a disciplinary action prescribed in Paragraph 1, if it is deemed reasonable to suspend or limit the Regular Member's Rights, and if the aggregate period of suspension or limitation of the Regular Member's Rights including the previous suspension or limitation period which started on the corresponding date of five years ago or later exceeds one year, the Association may expel such a Regular Member.
7. The imposition of fine exceeding five hundred million yen that is determined by applying the proviso in Paragraph 4 above and the suspension or limitation of Regular Member's Rights or expulsion shall be executed by a resolution with the affirmative vote of two-thirds or more of the voting rights of the members of the Board of Governors or Self-regulation Board in attendance.
8. In case of the disciplinary actions prescribed in Paragraph 1 above, fine and suspension or limitation of Regular Member's Rights may be imposed jointly.
9. In the event that a Regular Member's Rights are suspended or limited as a disciplinary action prescribed in Paragraph 1 above, the rights of the Regular Member shall be suspended or limited during the designated period. In such a case, the Regular Member must perform all of its duties as a Regular Member.
10. A Regular Member may file a complaint in writing to the Complaint Review Council prescribed in Article 76-3 hereof within 10 days after receiving a notice of disciplinary action under Paragraph 1 above, by showing purpose and reasons of filing the complaint.
11. Any matters that are necessary for the procedures under Paragraph 1, Paragraph 2, and the preceding Paragraph shall be prescribed in the "Rules Concerning Procedures for Disciplinary Action, Etc. against Association Members".

(Admonition to Regular Members)

Article 29 If the observance by a Regular Member, or Financial Instruments Intermediary Service Providers for which the Regular Member is an Entrusting Financial Instruments Business Operator, etc. of laws and regulations, disciplinary actions taken by administrative government offices pursuant to laws and regulations, or the Articles of Association and other rules or the good faith principles of transactions, or the Regular Member's business or property is deemed inappropriate in light of the Association's purposes, the Association may admonish the Regular Member by presenting reasons therefor.

(Provisions Applied Mutatis Mutandis to Specified Business Members)

Article 30 The provisions of Articles 15 through 21, Article 25, Article 26, Article 28, and Article 29 hereof shall apply mutatis mutandis to Specified Business Members. In such cases, the term "Regular Member(s)" in the provisions of Articles 15 through 21, Article 25, Article 28, and Article 29 hereof shall be changed to read "Specified Business Member(s)," the term "Regular Member's Rights" in Article 28 hereof to read "Specified Business Member's rights," the term "Regular Member Representative" in Article 17 hereof to read "Specified Business Member Representative" and "A Regular Member who seeks to become a Specified Business Member must fulfill the requirements prescribed in Article 5, Item 2" in Article 26 to read "A Specified Business Member who seeks to become a Regular Member must fulfill the requirements prescribed in Article 5, Item 1" respectively.

CHAPTER III. SPECIAL MEMBERS

(Special Membership Status)

Article 31 An entity who fulfills the requirements prescribed in Article 5, Item 3 shall become a Special

Member upon the receipt of approval prescribed in Article 22, Paragraph 1.

2. In cases where a Special Member withdraws from the Association upon the receipt of approval prescribed in Article 25, Paragraph 1 that applies mutatis mutandis to Article 33, or is expelled from the Association by the resolution prescribed in Article 28, Paragraph 1 that applies mutatis mutandis to Article 33, the Special Member shall lose its membership status.

3. In cases where a Special Member's corporate status discontinues through a merger, the Special Member shall lose its membership status.

(Special Member's Rights)

Article 32 A Special Member shall have the rights as a Special Member prescribed in the Articles of Association Enforcement Rules (hereinafter referred to as "Special Member's Rights").

2. In cases where a Special Member loses its Special Membership Status pursuant to Paragraph 2 or 3 of the preceding Article, the Special Member's Rights shall lapse.

3. In cases where the Association determines that a Special Member is not an entity who conducts the Registered Financial Institution Business prescribed in Article 5, Item 3, or that a Special Member suspends its business operation and the Association approves to discharge the obligation of the Special Member to pay its membership fee during the business suspension period, a part of the Special Member's Rights prescribed in the Articles of Association Enforcement Rules shall be limited.

4. Special Member's Rights shall not be transferred.

(Provisions Applied Mutatis Mutandis to Special Members)

Article 33 The provisions of Articles 15 through 21, Article 25, Article 28, and Article 29 hereof shall apply mutatis mutandis to Special Members. In such cases, the term "Regular Member(s)" in these provisions hereof shall be changed to read "Special Member(s)," "Regular Member Representative" in Article 17 hereof to read "Special Member Representative" and "Regular Member's Rights" in Article 28 hereof to read "Special Member's Rights," respectively.

(Entrustment of Business)

Article 34 (DELETED)

CHAPTER IV. ASSOCIATION ORGANS

SECTION 1. GENERAL ASSEMBLY

(Convocation of General Assembly)

Article 35 Two types of General Assembly shall be set up: an Ordinary General Assembly and an Extraordinary General Assembly. An Ordinary General Assembly shall be convened within three months after the end of each business year, while an Extraordinary General Assembly shall be convened whenever necessary.

2. A General Assembly shall be convened by Chairman based on a resolution of the Board of Governors; provided, however, that when the convocation of a General Assembly is requested by one-fifth or more of Regular Members by presenting an agenda and reasons for the convocation, Chairman shall convene the General Assembly without delay.

3. Except for an emergency, a General Assembly prescribed in the preceding two Paragraphs shall be convened by notifying each Regular Member of the date, time, place and agenda of the meeting at least two weeks prior to the General Assembly.

(Agenda)

Article 36 A General Assembly shall resolve the matters set forth in each of the following Items in addition to the matters separately prescribed in the Articles of Association:

- (1) Matters concerning amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (2) Matters concerning approval of budget and settlement of accounts as well as business plan and business report for each business year;
- (3) Matters concerning dissolution of the Association and disposition of its residual property;
- (4) Matters concerning appointment of Chairman, Public Governors, Standing Governors, Standing Auditor, and Public Board Members; and
- (5) Other matters which are deemed necessary by the Board of Governors in addition to those set forth in each of the preceding Items.

(Eligible Attendee)

Article 37 Regular Member Representative or his/her deputy is eligible to attend a General Assembly.

(Quorum and Exercise of Voting Right)

Article 38 The proceedings of a General Assembly may not be commenced and resolutions may not be made unless a majority of the total number of Regular Members who possess voting rights with respect to the agenda concerned is present.

2. When the Board of Governors has admitted, a Regular Member may exercise its vote in writing (including electromagnetic records; the same shall apply hereinafter).

3. A Regular Member who has submitted a document to exercise its vote prescribed in the preceding Paragraph shall be deemed to be present at the General Assembly.

(Method of Resolution)

Article 39 Each Regular Member shall have one voting right; provided, however, a Regular Member shall not have the voting right if it falls under any of the following Items:

- (1) Regular Member's Rights are suspended or limited pursuant to the provision of Article 28, Paragraph 1 and the effect of such suspension or limitation continues;
- (2) A part of Regular Member's Rights is limited in case that the Association determines that the Regular Member is no longer an entity who conducts Type I Financial Instruments Business as prescribed in Article 5, Item 1;
- (3) A part of Regular Member's Rights is limited in case that the Regular Member suspends its business operation and the Association approves to discharge the obligation of the Regular Member to pay its membership fee during the business suspension period; or
- (4) A Regular Member has a special interest in the resolution at a General Assembly.

2. A resolution at a General Assembly shall be adopted with the affirmative vote of a majority of the Regular Members present; provided, however, that resolutions for amendments to the Articles of Association, dissolution of the Association, and disposition of the residual property shall be made by the affirmative vote of two-thirds or more of Regular Members who possess the voting right.

3. In case of the preceding Paragraph, no resolution related to an amendment to the Articles of Association and dissolution of the Association shall become effective before the approval of the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.

(Minutes)

Article 40 Minutes shall be prepared to record a summary of the proceedings and result of a General Assembly, and the chairman of the General Assembly and at least two Regular Member Representatives who attended the General Assembly shall sign (including electronic signature as specified in Article 2 Paragraph (1) of the Act on Electronic Signatures and Certification Business; the same shall apply hereinafter) the minutes.

SECTION 2. GOVERNORS AND AUDITORS, ETC.

- (9) Matters related to Complaint Review Council prescribed in Article 76-3, Paragraph 1.
- (10) Matters related to taking necessary measures prescribed in Article 27, Paragraph 1 (limited to matters related to those set forth in each Item above).

3. Notwithstanding the provision of Paragraph 1, the Board of Governors delegates the authority to resolve the matters set forth in each of the following Items to Securities Strategy Board and the authority to conduct operations related to such matters to Governors and Executive Officers who are members of Securities Strategy Board, respectively; provided, however, that when deemed particularly necessary to ensure appropriate operation of the Association business, the Board of Governors shall not be precluded from carrying out its responsibilities by itself:

- (1) Matters related to the businesses set forth in Article 7, Paragraph 1, Items 11 through 17 (the businesses set forth in the same Paragraph, Item 11 is limited to the business aimed at improving the level of skill by creating opportunities for officers and employees of the Association Members to increase their knowledge of business, and the businesses set forth in the same Paragraph, Item 13 is limited to the public relations related to the businesses delegated to the Securities Strategy Board), and other similar businesses set forth in the same Paragraph, Item 18;
- (2) Matters related to the enactment, amendment and abolition of the rules, as well as the detailed rules thereunder (limited to rules concerning the businesses set forth in the preceding Item) prescribed in Article 10; and
- (3) Matters related to the determination of interpretation when any question arises regarding interpretation of the rules and the detailed rules thereunder (limited to matters concerning the businesses set forth in Item 1) prescribed in Article 85.

4. Notwithstanding the provision of Paragraph 1, the Board of Governors delegates the authority to resolve the matters relating to procurement set forth in the Articles of Association Enforcement Rules to General Affairs Committee and the authority to conduct operations related to such matters to Governors and Executive Officers who are members of General Affairs Committee, respectively; provided, however, that when deemed particularly necessary to ensure appropriate operation of the Association business, the Board of Governors shall not be precluded from carrying out its responsibilities by itself.

5. Notwithstanding the provision of Paragraph 1, the Board of Governors delegates the authority to resolve the matters set forth in each of the following Items that relate to the code of conduct set forth in the Articles of Association Enforcement Rules to Code of Conduct Committee and the authority to conduct operations related to such matters to Governors and Executive Officers who are members of Code of Conduct Committee, respectively; provided, however, that when deemed particularly necessary to ensure appropriate operation of the Association business, the Board of Governors shall not be precluded from carrying out its responsibilities by itself:

- (1) Matters related to establishment, revision, abolishment, publication, and dissemination of code of conduct and model ethical code prescribed in the Articles of Association Enforcement Rules;
- (2) Matters related to investigation and review of acts or practice of Association Members, and publication of the results; and
- (3) Matters related to proposals for Self-regulation Board or Securities Strategy Board concerning the establishment, revision, and abolishment of laws, regulations, the Articles of Association, and other rules, or request thereon.

6. Notwithstanding the provision of Paragraph 1, the Board of Governors delegates the authority to resolve the matters relating to the businesses set forth in Article 7, Paragraph 1, Item 13 (limited to the business to disseminate the knowledge of Financial Instruments, Financial Benchmarks, and Financial Instruments Markets and promote enlightenment activities) to Financial Literacy & Education Support Committee, and the authority to conduct operations related to such matters to the Governors and Executive Officers who are members of Financial Literacy & Education Support Committee, respectively; provided, however, that when deemed particularly necessary to ensure appropriate operation of the Association business, the Board of Governors shall not be precluded from carrying out its responsibilities by itself.

7. The Board of Governors may require reports on matters delegated pursuant to provisions from Paragraph 2 to the preceding Paragraph.

(Convocation of the Board of Governors)

Article 57 Two types of meetings of the Board of Governors shall be set up: an ordinary meeting and an extraordinary meeting of the Board of Governors.

2. An ordinary meeting of the Board of Governors shall be held on the date and at the time previously designated by Chairman with a consent of the Board of Governors; provided, however, that Chairman may change such date and time of the meeting or cancel the meeting.

3. An extraordinary meeting of the Board of Governors shall be convened by Chairman whenever necessary; provided, however, that when a Governor requests a convocation of a meeting submitting a written agenda showing the purpose of the meeting, Chairman shall convene the meeting without delay.

(Quorum)

Article 58 The proceedings of a meeting of the Board of Governors may not be commenced and resolutions may not be made unless a majority of the Governors who have a voting right on the resolution in question is present; provided, however, that for the matters other than those with respect to which Special Member Governor may participate in deliberation prescribed in the proviso of Article 55 hereof, the presence of a majority of Regular Member Governors, Public Governors and Standing Governors shall suffice.

(Method of Resolution)

Article 59 Unless otherwise prescribed in the Articles of Association, a resolution at a meeting of the Board of Governors shall be adopted with the affirmative vote of a majority of all the Governors present.

2. Each Regular Member Governor, Public Governor and Standing Governor shall have one voting right.
3. Special Member Governor shall have one voting right; provided, however, that Special Member Governor shall have the voting right only with respect to the matters prescribed in the proviso of Article 55 in cases set forth in the same proviso.
4. In the event that a Governor has a special interest in an agenda at a meeting of the Board of Governors, such Governor shall have no voting right with respect to such agenda.

(Alternative Meeting Forms through Written Communications, Etc.)

Article 60 When deemed necessary, Chairman may seek Governors' views through written communications or other alternative methods instead of convening a meeting of the Board of Governors and make a resolution equivalent to a resolution of the Board of Governors. If the Governors' views are sought through a method other than written communications, Chairman shall confirm such a resolution in writing without delay.

2. The provisions of the preceding Article shall apply mutatis mutandis to the resolution in case of the preceding Paragraph.

(Minutes)

Article 61 Minutes shall be prepared to record a summary of the proceedings and result of a meeting of the Board of Governors, and Chairman and at least two persons appointed by the Chairman among the Governors and Auditors who attend the meeting shall sign the minutes.

2. With respect to the minutes when adopting alternative meeting forms through written communications, etc. set forth in Paragraph 1 of the preceding Article, documents in which a confirmation has been obtained with respect to the matters on the relevant meeting' s agenda prescribed in the same Paragraph may substitute for the minutes.
